149 total members!

G-Body Member Expectations

- Adhere to deadlines!
  - Repeated missing of deadlines will result in removal from the SP26 roster
  - If you cannot handle your workload, please let e-board and your pairings know sooner than later

- Attend 1 speaker series and 1 social event
  - 1 speaker series / month (organized by Maia!)
    - Please be active participants
  - 2-3 social events / month (role-specific workshops & fun events!)
    - Great way to meet peers and get to know E-board! Keep in mind if you're interested in applying...

ZERO AI Tolerance Policy

- AI use is prohibited in writing, editing, or art
- Using AI defeats the purpose of CHR, which aims to showcase students' original work, thoughts, voice, and creativity.
- AI use will result in removal from position(s) for the current and all future semesters.
- Don't do it :)

Communication is key!

- Your article team: 1 writer, 3 editors, 1 artist
  - Communicate proactively and openly. It's great to discuss ideas and feedback for all roles!
- Your workshop team: ~4 writers, ~3 editors, 0-2 artists
  - Get to know them today!
- E-board is here to help! Email or DM on Discord if you have questions or concerns.
  - Email: cuhealthcarereview@gmail.com
  - Writers: Olivia (oyq3), Julia (jhc326)
  - Editors: Esther (hy596), Saki (sk3365)
  - Artists: Caitlin (cms558), Rachel (rjj64)

Staying up-to-date

- Email: Deadline & event communications, newsletters
  - Make sure cuhealthcarereview@gmail.com doesn't go to spam!
- Discord: Deadline & event communications, last-minute updates, chill chatting
  - Use your FULL NAME so E-board and pairings know who yo are
  - View gbody, role-specific, and resources channels
  - You may mute notifications for channels not relating t you
- Instagram: Event communications, member & work highlights, issue sneak-peeks
  - Follow us @cuhealthcarereview!
- Google calendar: Deadline & event info

Team Activity

Get to know your team members!

Get to know your team!

1) Introduce yourselves

- Name, year, major
- CHR role
- What you like to read, write, or draw

2) Find 2 common hobbies

- Music, sports, cafe hopping, etc…

Team Story :D

You have 30 seconds to…

1) Write one sentence

- Fold the paper so only your sentence is visible

2) Draw one thing

- At the bottom, add something to the drawing

3) Rotate and repeat!

- Pass your paper along in a circle

4) Discuss while waiting:

- Physics phenomenon: What happens if you tape toast to a cat's back with the butter side up?
- Most unique/niche/rare color shade
- Coffee, tea, or pure willpower?
- Favorite manic hour activity
- Reviving memes… which Italian brainrot are you feeling today?
- Which ice cream flavor are you?
- Hobby/skill you want to master
- Fight 1 goose every day or a swarm of bees every year?
- Play 2 truths + 1 lie if you spoke too fast

5) Share your stories :)

Writers

Points of contact:

- Olivia (oyq3)
- Julia (jhc326)

Proposals

- Proposal MUST be approved before draft submission
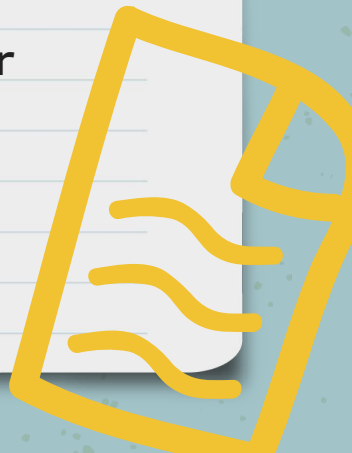
- Check the CHR SP26 Official Roster spreadsheet
  - Green highlight: approved :)
  - Yellow highlight: needs revision :)
- Look out for an email from Esther/Saki if your proposal needs to be revised



Common Reasons for Revisions

- Topic is too broad/generic
  - E.g. telemedicine, business in medicine, etc.
- Missing 2 scholarly source citations
  - “Scholarly” means peer-reviewed
- Topic overlap with other writers
  - Focus on specific patient populations or niche aspects of your topic

Semester Timeline

- Article Draft due: Fri. February 27
  - Extension deadline: Mon. March 2
  - Send your draft to ALL your editors

- Final Article due: Mon. April 6
  - NO EXTENSIONS
  - Communicate with your editors as you finalize your article

- Print/online exclusive notice: End of April

Print v. Online

- ALL final articles submitted within the deadline will be included in our SP26 Online Edition
  - Requirements must be met (more later)

- Print Articles
  - High quality
  - Lay audience-friendly
  - Basic requirements met (more later)

- Online Exclusive Articles
  - Everything else that was submitted

Article Requirements

- Title: 8 or less words
- Include under title: author name, major, grad year
- Body word count: 500-900 words
  - Your editors are NOT responsible for this
- Text format: TNR/Arial, 12 pt, 1.5 spacing
- Citations: APA format, 5+ scholarly sources numbered in order of appearance
  - In-text brackets: [1]
  - Works cited numbering: 1.

Resource Drive

APA citation reference, CHR style guide, example article, etc…

Will be pinned to resource channel on Discord

Let us know if you want additional resources added!

Attendance Requirements

- Required to be considered for print:
  - 1 Social (workshops count!)
  - 1 Speaker Series

- Attendance is tracked on the Official Roster

- If deciding between 2 articles where both authors have met these requirements, we will take into account overall engagement, so…
  - The more you attend, the better :))

Writer Awards

- 2-3 writers selected per semester

- Selection factors:
  - All article and member requirements satisfied
  - Demonstrated passion
  - Niche article topic
  - Engaging and eloquent writing style and voice
  - Organized, concise, and fluid structure
  - Participation in club events beyond requirements

- Nominations from Gbody are considered!

Editors

Points of contact:

- Esther (hy596)
- Saki (sk3365)

Expectations

- Make thorough edits for your 4 or 5 assigned articles
- Comment on your writers' shared google docs AND submit an article feedback form for each article
- Adhere to deadlines
  - 3/13 editor feedback due
  - 3/16 editor extension due
- IMPORTANT: editors should continue working with their writers throughout the entire semester, stay in contact before draft deadline, before editing deadline etc.

Citations

- You must check that citations are formatted properly!
- They must be in order of appearance (not alphabetical). APA Format

Example:

In-Text

- Cite with brackets, like this [1].

Works Cited

1. Number your citations, like this.

Details & Style Guide

Parallel Construction

Make sure all clauses match each other in “construction.”

Wrong:
Ellen likes hiking, the pool, and to bathe in the sun.

Right:
Ellen likes hiking, going to the pool, and bathing in the sun.

Tense/Tone

Make sure to match tense throughout the piece.

Try not to water down claims with “might/may” statements or passive voice (was decreased, was affected, etc.)

Style Guide in Drive

- Helps you make sense of difficult/subjective issues regarding grammar and punctuation
- E.g. MD vs. M.D., oxford comma vs. none, apostrophe, semicolon/colon uses.
- Important to use! This allows for all of our articles to read in a cohesive manner!

Feedback

Editors responsibility for each writing piece:

1) Comment on writer's document for feedback (grammar, flow, structure, etc.)
2) Fill out article feedback form

PULSE Special Edition

Early DDL: Friday, 2/20

Regular DDL: Monday, 3/16

Submission Forms in Linktree

Prompt 1: Student Voices

Amidst the dynamic trends, newly implemented policies, and shifting structural frameworks of healthcare, numerous controversies and debates have arisen in recent years. Address a specific and pertinent issue or topic of interest relevant to such changes and associated views while showcasing student voices and public perspectives.

Prompt 2: The Future Reimagined

Today's trends build tomorrow's healthcare. Whether progress is forward or backward, scientific or social, personal or public, all current efforts contribute to the future of our healthcare system. Picture yourself in the year 2075. What does next-generation healthcare look like?

Mini Prompt Series

February DDL: Wed, 2/25

Art Prompts:

1. Create a piece to celebrate American Heart Month.
2. Create an artwork that shows pet dental care.

Submission Forms in Linktree

Writing Prompts:

1. Share your thoughts on AI in clinical medicine.
2. Pitch an addition or change to a medical facility that is completely unnecessary but would be fun to have.
3. Imagine you are a red blood cell traveling through the circulatory system. Document your journey.

What's next?

- Begin working on articles (if approved) or artwork; watch for E-board communications about submission & guidelines
- Stay in touch with your team and pairings! Brainstorm!
- Keep an eye out for social & speaker events
- Submit to PULSE & mini prompt series (if you'd like!)

Thanks for coming!
